

Certificate of Need Schedule of Reviews

Certificate of Need regulations require "batching" of certain types of applications. These applications are considered twice a year according to an established schedule. The following table shows the kinds of applications that are "batched" and the months in which the reviews begin. Additionally, the SHPDA recommends the following submission dates for applications.

Application Type	Review Period Begins	Recommended Submission of Application
Alcoholism/Chemical Dependency Services CT Scanning Services Psychiatric Services	January- July	December 20 th June 20 th
Cardiac Surgery and Catheterization Services Diagnostic Radiology and Ultrasound Services MRI Services OB and Gyn Services	February -August	January 20 th July 20 th
Neonatal Special Care Pediatric Services Renal Disease Services	March- September	February 20 th August 20 th
Acute Long-Term Services Burn Services Home Health Services	April-October	March 20 th September 20 th
Intermediate Care Services Radiation Therapy Services Skilled Nursing Services	May-November	April 20 th October 20 th
General Medical and Surgical Services	June- December	May 20 th – November 20 th

Services not listed above can be reviewed without regard to batching. For additional information contact the SHPDA.